Parashas Hamon - Daily Prayer for Sustenance

A powerful segulah (spiritual remedy) for parnassah (livelihood)

Opening Prayer (Yehi Ratzon)

May it be Your will, Hashem our God and God of our fathers, that You provide sustenance for all Your nation, the House of Israel, and my sustenance and the sustenance of my household among them. [Grant this] with tranquility and not with distress, with honor and not with disgrace, in a permissible way and not through prohibition, so that we may be able to serve You and study Your Torah, just as You sustained our forefathers with manna in the wilderness, in a dry and desolate land.

Parashas Hamon - The Torah Reading (Exodus 16:4-36)

4. Then the Lord said to Moses: "Behold, I will rain down bread from heaven for you, and the people shall go out and gather each day's portion on its day, so that I may test them, whether they will follow My teaching or not."

5. "And it shall be on the sixth day that they shall prepare what they bring in, and it will be twice as much as they gather each day."

6. Moses and Aaron said to all the children of Israel: "In the evening you will know that the Lord brought you out of the land of Egypt."

7. "And in the morning you will see the glory of the Lord, when He hears your complaints against the Lord. What are we that you should complain against us?"

8. Moses said: "When the Lord gives you meat to eat in the evening and bread in the morning to satisfy you, when the Lord hears your complaints which you complain against Him—what are we? Your complaints are not against us, but against the Lord."

9. Moses said to Aaron: "Say to the entire congregation of the children of Israel, 'Draw near before the Lord, for He has heard your complaints.'"

10. And it came to pass when Aaron spoke to the entire congregation of the children of Israel, that they turned toward the wilderness, and behold! the glory of the Lord appeared in the cloud.

11. The Lord spoke to Moses, saying:

12. "I have heard the complaints of the children of Israel. Speak to them, saying: 'In the afternoon you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be satisfied with bread, and you shall know that I am the Lord, your God.'"

13. It came to pass in the evening that the quail went up and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp.

14. The layer of dew went up, and behold, on the surface of the wilderness, a fine, bare thing, fine as hoarfrost on the ground.

15. When the children of Israel saw it, they said to one another: "What is it?" because they did not know what it was. Moses said to them: "It is the bread that the Lord has given you to eat."

16. "This is the thing that the Lord commanded: Gather from it, each man according to his eating capacity, an omer per person. According to the number of your souls, each man should take for those in his tent."

17. The children of Israel did so; they gathered, some more and some less.

18. They measured with an omer, and whoever gathered much did not have more, and whoever gathered little did not have less; each man gathered according to his eating capacity.

19. Moses said to them: "Let no man leave any of it over until morning."

20. But they did not obey Moses, and some people left some of it over until morning, and it bred worms and became putrid, and Moses became angry with them.

21. They gathered it morning by morning, each man according to his eating capacity, and when the sun grew hot, it melted.

22. It came to pass on the sixth day that they gathered a double portion of bread, two omers for each person. All the princes of the congregation came and told Moses.

23. He said to them: "That is what the Lord spoke, 'Tomorrow is a rest day, a holy Sabbath to the Lord. Bake whatever you wish to bake, and cook whatever you wish to cook, and all the surplus leave over for yourselves as a keepsake until morning.'"

24. So they left it over until morning, as Moses had commanded, and it did not become putrid, and not a worm was in it.

25. Moses said: "Eat it today, for today is a Sabbath to the Lord; today you will not find it in the field."

26. "Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day [which is the] Sabbath, there will be none."

27. It came to pass on the seventh day that some of the people went out to gather [manna], but they did not find [any].

28. The Lord said to Moses: "How long will you refuse to observe My commandments and My teachings?"

29. "See that the Lord has given you the Sabbath. Therefore, on the sixth day, He gives you bread for two days. Let each man remain in his place; let no man leave his place on the seventh day."

30. So the people rested on the seventh day.

31. The house of Israel called its name manna, and it was like coriander seed, [it was] white, and it tasted like a wafer with honey.

32. Moses said: "This is the thing that the Lord commanded: 'Let one omerful of it be preserved for your generations, in order that they see the bread that I fed you in the wilderness when I took you out of the land of Egypt.'"

33. Moses said to Aaron: "Take one jug and put there one omerful of manna, and deposit it before the Lord to be preserved for your generations."

34. As the Lord had commanded Moses, Aaron deposited it before the Testimony to be preserved.

35. The children of Israel ate the manna for forty years until they came to an inhabited land; they ate the manna until they came to the border of the land of Canaan.

36. The omer is one tenth of an ephah.

Closing Personal Prayer

You alone are the Lord! You made the heavens and the heaven of heavens, the earth and all that is upon it, the seas and all that is in them, and You give life to them all. You are the One who performed great miracles and wonders constantly with our forefathers. Even in the wilderness You rained down bread from heaven for them, and from the rock of flint You brought forth water for them, and You gave them all their needs—their garments did not wear out upon them.

So too, in Your abundant mercy and Your immense kindness, sustain us and provide for us and support us, and supply us with all our needs and the needs of Your people, the House of Israel, which are many—in fullness and with ease, without trouble and great toil, from Your clean hand and not from the hands of flesh and blood.

May it be Your will, Lord my God and God of my fathers, that You prepare for me and for the people of my household all our deficiencies, and provide for us all our needs for every single day of our lives—sufficient for our lack, and for every single hour of our hours—sufficient for our satisfaction, and for every bone of our bones—sufficient for our sustenance, from Your good and generous hand, and not according to our meager deeds and our limited kindnesses and our insufficient rewards.

May my sustenance and the sustenance of the people of my household and my children and my children's children be given over into Your hand and not into the hand of flesh and blood.

Daily Practice Notes

- Best Time: Many recite this daily, with special emphasis on Tuesday before Parshas Beshalach is read
- Charity: Consider giving tzedakah (charity) after reciting this prayer to enhance its spiritual power
- Intention: Focus on trust in Divine providence and gratitude for daily sustenance
- Frequency: Can be said daily as part of morning prayers or whenever focusing on livelihood concerns

"Sustenance comes from Above—trust in Hashem's provision just as our ancestors trusted in the daily manna."
